Dear Monica:

This letter is in response to your letter dated June 18, 1997 (enclosed for your reference).

The above referenced report listed conduits for earmarked contributions that were not deposited in our account as memo entries, but were reported on computer generated forms that combined Schedule A and Schedule B. These forms are duplicates of those forms used by EMILY's List and Wish List (two political committees that are similar to our organization) which I understand have been approved by the Commission. The report also included memo entries of in-kind contributions incurred but not yet paid for by the committee which are reported on a computer generated format similar to that used by EMILY's List.

However, per your recommendation, I have enclosed a request for the Commission to approve both forms. Unless the Commission disapproves the forms, we will consider the above referenced report to be our final submission.

The Schedule B in question is correct; the payments for in-kind contributions were not paid previously. The payments were reported on the original October 15 Quarterly Report, but were mistakenly not reported as "memo" entries as they should have been, i.e. they were incurred, but not yet paid. When I discovered the mistake, I immediately called our analyst, Mr. Neil Evans, and he recommended that we refile the October Quarterly Report in the correct format. That is what we have done. Please see the Amended October 15, 1996 Quarterly Report, dated December 12, 1996.
